38 DUTY DISABILITY CLAIMS

Ferraro, Patricia D.

This was a duty disability application filed by the officer relating to some orthopedic injuries. From the medical reports of Dr. Levin, the orthopedic medical complaints have resolved and are no longer an issue in this case. The officer is now seeking a heart disability benefit and wants to proceed with an application for an occupational disease disability. On 09/25/2014, this matter was deferred.

Officer Ferraro appeared, with counsel, before the Board on her application for disability benefits. The Board is not in the position to address an occupational disability because Officer Ferraro has not exhausted her non-duty benefits, medical leave, with the Chicago Police Department.

Review and testimony was focused on the period the officer exhausted her IOD medical benefits with the CPD through the current date. Medical reports were reviewed and testimony was taken.

It was moved by Trustee Hamburger, seconded by Trustee Lappe that the Board go into executive session pursuant to 2 (c)(11).

- Based on statutory requirement of annual exams of disability recipients, the Board's physician, Dr. Orris, was to examine John Kubik in July 2014. Mr. Kubik forwarded communication and medical information that he was too ill to travel from Michigan to his annual exam. Dr. Orris arranged for Mr. Kubik to have an IME completed by a physician in Detroit in June 2014. Mr. Kubik failed to keep the appointment. The physician from Detroit has been unsuccessful contacting this member for rescheduling of the IME.

It was moved by Trustee Avila, seconded by Trustee Lappe that the Board approve that communication be sent to John Kubik informing him that if he does not follow through and reschedule the IME with the physician in Detroit that his disability benefit shall be suspended November 30, 2014, until such time an appointment is made.

Fund's counsel addressed with the Board prior disability status reviews.

- Patrick Blair submitted to the Fund a report from Midwest Orthopedics at Rush indicating he is medically cleared to proceed with a handgun qualification. Officer Blair is able to meet job restrictions, therefore is seeking to apply for reinstatement to the Chicago Police Department.

Testimony was taken from staff member, Bob Crawford, concerning Patrick Blair, and the submission of the medical report and conversations had concerning his desire to be reinstated to active duty.

Based on the medical reports and testimony from a Fund staff member it was moved by Trustee Hamburger, seconded by Trustee Lappe, that the Board issue a letter that Officer Blair's duty disability benefit shall cease on November 30, 2014, in order to enable his return to active duty.

- Karen Madigan submitted to the Fund a report from Dr. Louis Redondo indicating she is medically cleared for employment with certain restriction.

Testimony was taken from staff member Bob Crawford, concerning this submission and conversations had concerning her desire to be reinstated to the Chicago Police Department.

Because Officer Madigan is in receipt of an Ordinary Disability Benefit, the CPD cannot return her to a 'light duty' position, therefore the Board is required to pass on this matter, which will be re-addressed when she is released for full duty.

All business concluded for this date, October 30, 2014, it was moved by Trustee Avila, seconded by Trustee Hamburger that this meeting be adjourned.
